

Hundreds of years ago, historic explorers traveled on caravels. Mr. Deering enjoyed learning about historic exploration and chose two symbols to represent Vizcaya: the caravel and the seahorse. Below is a photograph to remind you of one of the caravels at Vizcaya.

Imagine you are an explorer who will travel long distances on a ship.

What would your ship look like?

Design your ship below.

A large dashed rectangular box intended for drawing a ship design.

Caravel: a large sailboat used by historic explorers to travel on journeys lasting months or years.