

One end of the swimming pool at Vizcaya is decorated with monsters! This 1920 drawing, along with instructions, tells the artists how the marble stone colors and patterns should be placed. However, it does not include the details of how the monster looks. If you were the artist, how would you decorate the monster? Design your own monster using the outline provided below.

