

An important idea in the design of Vizcaya is the connection between the indoors and the outside environment. The East Loggia and Enclosed Loggia are pictured below to help you remember your visit.

How are the East Loggia and Enclosed Loggia the same or different?
Do you remember which one is which?

Same:

Different:

Loggia: an area that is open to the outdoors, with a roof, and often attached to a courtyard. Loggia is an Italian word that sounds like “loja.”